'An Inspector Calls' Theatre Trip

The English Department is organising a trip for our GCSE students who are studying the play 'An Inspector Calls', which is a set text for the English Literature paper. Having the opportunity to see a live performance of the play will be hugely beneficial to your child, as it will enhance their understanding of the play and will enrich their experience of the themes and issues explored, as well as characterisation and how it is performed.

The performance will be on Thursday 1 December at The National Theatre in London. We will be departing from school at 12.00pm in order to arrive at the theatre to see the matinee performance, which starts at 2.30pm and finishes at 4.15pm. We will be leaving London at 4.45pm and should be back at Chiltern Edge at approximately 6.30pm. Normal school uniform is expected and pupils will need a packed lunch, note books, and possibly some money, if souvenir purchases are wanted.

The cost of the trip will be £35.00, which includes travel by coach and performance ticket. Should you wish your child to attend, please log into the School Gateway at www.schoolgateway.com, or via the School Gateway app, to give consent and make your payment, by Monday 31 October. Please do not send in cash or cheques. If you are in receipt of Income Support, or the cost of this trip might cause financial difficulty, please contact our Business Manager at office@chilternedge.oxon.sch.uk, as soon as possible, as assistance cannot be arranged retrospectively.

It is essential that we have a copy of the attached medical form OA1/2 completed for each pupil taking part. Please fill in both sides and return it to Pupil Services, by Monday 31 October.

Please note that the trip is subject to cost increases/ cancellation, should student take up numbers be below expected participation levels.

Should you have any questions about this trip, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully
