

What to do if...

You are ill on the day of an exam

You are going to be late for an exam

You are disadvantaged in some way before or during the exams

Speak to the Exams Officer. There are several ways in which you can be helped should your exams be disrupted by events outside of your control, for example, the death of a close relative, serious illness of you or a family member or any domestic crisis at the time of the exams.

Chiltern Edge Reception: 0118 9721500

Pupil Services: ex. 462

Exams Officer: ex. 499